SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of: TWO (2) YEARS. This consists of a term of supervised release of two (2) years on each of Counts 1 and 2, to run concurrently with each other, for a total supervised release term of two (2) years.

The defendant must report to the probation office in the district to which the defendant is released within 72 hours of release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons.

The defendant shall not commit another federal, state or local crime.

The defendant shall not unlawfully possess a controlled substance. The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. The defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court.

- ☐ The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court's determination that the defendant poses a low risk of future substance abuse. (Check, if applicable.)
- ☒ The defendant shall not possess a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or any other dangerous weapon. (Check, if applicable.)
- ☒ The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (Check, if applicable.)
- ☐ The defendant shall register with the state sex offender registration agency in the state where the defendant resides, works, or is a student, as directed by the probation officer. (Check, if applicable.)
- ☐ The defendant shall participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (Check, if applicable.)

If this judgment imposes a fine or restitution, it is a condition of supervised release that the defendant pay in accordance with the Schedule of Payments sheet of this judgment.

The defendant must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any additional conditions on the attached page.

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

- 1) the defendant shall not leave the judicial district without the permission of the court or probation officer;
- 2) the defendant shall report to the probation officer and shall submit a truthful and complete written report within the first five days of each month;
- 3) the defendant shall answer truthfully all inquiries by the probation officer and follow the instructions of the probation officer;
- 4) the defendant shall support his or her dependents and meet other family responsibilities;
- 5) the defendant shall work regularly at a lawful occupation, unless excused by the probation officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons;
- 6) the defendant shall notify the probation officer at least ten days prior to any change in residence or employment;
- 7) the defendant shall refrain from excessive use of alcohol and shall not purchase, possess, use, distribute, or administer any controlled substance or any paraphernalia related to any controlled substances, except as prescribed by a physician;
- 8) the defendant shall not frequent places where controlled substances are illegally sold, used, distributed, or administered;
- 9) the defendant shall not associate with any persons engaged in criminal activity and shall not associate with any person convicted of a felony, unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer;
- 10) the defendant shall permit a probation officer to visit him or her at any time at home or elsewhere and shall permit confiscation of any contraband observed in plain view of the probation officer;
- 11) the defendant shall notify the probation officer within seventy-two hours of being arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer;
- 12) the defendant shall not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or a special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the court; and
- 13) as directed by the probation officer, the defendant shall notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by the defendant's criminal record or personal history or characteristics and shall permit the probation officer to make such notifications and to confirm the defendant's compliance with such notification requirement.

If upon commencement of the term of supervised release any part of the restitution remains unpaid, the defendant shall make payments on such unpaid balance beginning 60 days after release from custody at the rate of at least $50 per month until the restitution is paid in full. Furthermore, it is ordered that interest on the unpaid balance is waived pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f) (3).

The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the U.S. Probation Officer, as authorized by the Justice for All Act of 2004.

The defendant shall pay any remaining balance of restitution in the amount of $79,440.60, as set out in this Judgment.

The defendant shall provide to the U.S. Probation Officer any requested financial information.

The defendant shall participate in mental health treatment services as directed by the U.S. Probation Officer until successfully discharged. These services may include medications prescribed by a licensed physician.

The defendant shall participate in a program (inpatient and/or outpatient) approved by the U.S. Probation Office for treatment of narcotic, drug, or alcohol dependency, which will include testing for the detection of substance use or abuse. The defendant shall abstain from the use of alcohol and/or all other intoxicants during and after completion of treatment.

DEFENDANT: MATTHEW DOUGLAS WEIGMAN
CASE NUMBER: 3:08-CR-171-M (01)

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

The defendant shall participate and comply with the requirements of the Computer and Internet Monitoring Program, contributing to the cost of the monitoring in an amount not to exceed $40 per month. The defendant shall consent to the probation officer conducting ongoing monitoring of his/her computer(s). The monitoring may include the installation of hardware and/or software systems which allows evaluation of computer use. The defendant shall not remove, tamper with, reverse engineer, or circumvent the software in any way. The defendant shall only use authorized computer systems that are compatible with the software and/or hardware used by the Computer and Internet Monitoring Program. The defendant shall permit the U.S. Probation Officer to conduct a preliminary computer search prior to the installation of software. The monitoring software may be disabled or removed at any time during the term of supervision at the discretion of the U.S. Probation Officer.

The defendant shall submit to periodic unannounced examination of his/her computer(s), storage media, and/or other electronic or Internet-capable device performed by the probation officer at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner based on reasonable suspicion of contraband evidence of a violation of supervision. This may include the retrieval and copying of any prohibited data and/or the removal of such system for the purpose of conducting a more thorough inspection. The defendant shall provide written authorization for release of information from the defendant's Internet service provider.

The defendant shall not install new hardware, perform upgrades, or effect repairs on his/her computer system without receiving prior permission from the U.S. Probation Officer.

The defendant shall not access any service or use any software which allows for direct peer to peer contact which may include chat rooms, file sharing, or other similar activity without permission from the U.S. Probation Officer.

The defendant shall not view, possess, and/or compose any material that describes or promotes the unauthorized access to computer systems.

The defendant shall not use any computer other than the one the defendant is authorized to use without prior approval from the U.S. Probation Officer.

Unless the restitution payment schedule is modified, the Court intends that garnishment is available only to the extent that restitution payments are currently due and owing under the set payment schedule.
